1997 Horizon Elegance 76 – Twin Caterpillar 3412 Diesel Engines – Shaft Drives. Boats.co.uk is delighted to present this impressive 1997 Horizon Elegance 76, a beautifully appointed luxury flybridge motor yacht offering exceptional space, comfort and entertaining facilities throughout. Originally sold by Boats.co.uk in 2024, this yacht has been carefully maintained and improved by her current owners, who have fitted new carpets, continued professional engine maintenance with Finning UK and transformed her into a wonderfully comfortable and inviting home on the water. Powered by twin Caterpillar 3412 diesel engines on shaft drives, this substantial motor yacht offers an excellent combination of luxury, practicality and generous accommodation, making her ideal for extended cruising, entertaining family and friends, or simply enjoying life afloat. Having originally sold this yacht in 2024, we are particularly pleased to offer her back to the market following a period of attentive ownership and thoughtful improvements. The current owners have created a comfortable and welcoming environment throughout, making her equally suited to extended stays aboard or entertaining family and friends in style. For further information or to arrange a private viewing, please contact Boats.co.uk on +44 (0)1702 258885 or email sales@boats.co.uk.
